the funds regularly available at both institutions for the types of collaboration undertaken and by financial assistance as may be obtained by either institution from external sources.

This Memorandum is not a contract. This Memorandum serves only as a statement of the general intention of the Parties and is not intended to be legally binding nor to be construed as an agreement on any matters mentioned. No oral agreement or conduct of the Parties in respect of matters stated in this Memorandum shall be deemed to impose any obligation or liability on either Party

This Memorandum is not intended to constitute, create, give effect to, or otherwise form a joint venture, or other business entity of any kind. Neither Party shall act as an agent for, or partner of, the other Party. There are neither any rights nor obligations of the Parties established under this Memorandum.

Although the intention of this Memorandum is to discuss and negotiate issues with respect to a possible definitive agreement between the Parties, the relationship is non-exclusive, and the Parties shall have the ability to form similar or different business relationships with other companies or entities of their choice

All publications resulting from the collaboration between the two institutions must give recognition to the Memorandum. Likewise, the Memorandum must also be mentioned in all courses and formal presentations that result from collaboration under the terms hereof.

Should any faculty collaboration result in any potential for intellectual property, the parties will immediately meet through designated representatives and seek an equitable and fair understanding as to ownership and other property interests that may arise. Any such discussions will at all times strive to preserve a harmonious and continuing relationship between the parties.

The Parties agree to comply with all national, state, and local rules, regulations, executive orders, laws, and policies forbidding unlawful discrimination to which institution is subject.

The Parties understand that they are proceeding at their own risk and they understand that costs regarding the subject matter under this Memorandum are to be paid for by the Party who incurs the cost. Nothing contained in this Memorandum is to be construed as providing for the sharing of profits or losses arising out of the efforts of either or both Parties. Neither Party will be liable to the other for any costs, expenses, risks or liabilities arising out of the other Parties efforts in connection with this Memorandum.

Upon approval by each institution, this Memorandum will remain in effect for a period of Ten (10) years unless terminated earlier by either institution. Such termination by one institution shall be effected by giving the other institution at least six (6) months advance written notice of its intention to terminate. Termination will be without penalty.

Notwithstanding the above, the period of this cooperation will, if necessary, be extended with consent in writing from the Parties.
